REAL ESTATE MATTERS.

Hayne street, Charleston, S. C., was sold recently for $5,000; one-fourth cash, balance in five annual instalments.

The Mobile Register says that within the last thirty days cotton plantation acres have risen 300 per cent in value. The present crop will pay the planters all out of debt and leave them such cash surpluses as they never rejoiced in in the old slave times.

During the past year South Boston expended $97,000 in the erection of brick buildings and $125,000 in wooden buildings.

A farm of 160 acres lying near the St. Louis and Indianapolis Railroad, between Maidtoon and Charleston, Coles county, was sold last week for $7,000 cash, which was at the rate of $43.75 per acre.

An old gentleman was recently waiting for the cars in the depot of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad, when, looking over the great building, he exclaimed:—"Only think of it! But a little over thirty years ago I was ofered eighty acres of land, on part of which this depot is now built, for a sorrel horse and saddle, and I was fool enough to keep the sorrel."

Goncarning Washington houses an exchange says:—The impression used to prevail that the capital was a city of boarding houses. This is partially true, but there have been recently built a large number of houses, replete with all modern improvements, and which are now awaiting purchasers or tenants—rent from $1,000 to $1,500, prices from $10,000 to $15,000, to incined. On the outskirts very nice houses can be hired for $300 per annum, which, before the war, would have rented for $300. Nor is there any probability that rents will come down for many years.

The value of real estate, transfers of which were recorded in St. Louis December 23, was $32,778.

The value of real estate, transfers of which were recorded in Chicago December 31, was $66,600.
